What is it?

The international and belgian participants will discover Brussels through a scavenger hunt combining elements and perspectives from the history of the city, of sport, and of symbolic women.

11

Palace of Egmont & the Park

12

Royal Park Royal Palace

13

Place de la Monnaie

- » Everything can be done by foot.
- » You will follow the footsteps of iconic women & athletes across the city to learn all about the history of women in sport and most of all, have fun!
- » Collect points by answering the questions, completing the challenges. You can even win bonus points!

THERE ARE DIFFERENT TYPES OF CHALLENGES

Know

Here we will ask you a question that you would need to answer.

No worries, even if this is the first time in Brussels you will be able to find the right answer!

Do

Crack a code, make a little movie or walk like a model. These are some examples of missions to complete to get more points.

Bonus Points

On the way you can find cartoon walls, street art, female street names, fountains,... Score even more points by looking around.

THERE ARE DIFFERENT TYPES OF STOPS

Must See

The highlights not to miss in the city center of Brussels. These stops are mandatory and will give you the best view of the city!

Nice to See

Want to see more of the city? We share more favorite places in Brussels where locals go or where you have nice views or charming little streets. And as an extra advantage you can score even more points!

Go The Extra Mile

No points can be scored here, but these places are nice to visit as well. If you cannot do them on the cultural day it can give you some inspiration for your free afternoon.

- » Make sure you have your phones on you. You may need them for some of the challenges!
- » Take a photo of the whole group every time you have completed a challenge. Post it on social media and tag #sheruns2022.

Last thing to do...

- » Choose a strong name for your team that you will use throughout the hunt. In Belgium we like the color red, so this can maybe be an idea. We already have the Red Panthers (hockey), the Red Flames (soccer),... Create a tag with your group that you can use on social media and fill in your name on the scoresheet.

Will your team get the most points and WIN the PRIZE?!

GOOD LUCK & ENJOY
Brussels, your team
and the game!

MUST SEE

THE SCAVENGER HUNT

What is it?

These are the highlights not to miss in the city center of Brussels. These stops are mandatory and will give you the best view of the city! Follow the numbers on that map in the order that you have received.

Stop 1

BRUSSELS CITY HALL & GRAND PLACE

Here you are at the most beautiful square in the world. That is what some people said, like the famous writer Victor Hugo. The houses you can see are guild houses. A guild was representing a profession. So you had the guilds of the brewers, the butchers, the sailors,... The houses were built all together after a huge bombing in 1695 and every guild wanted to have the most beautiful house. So they added a lot of statues, gold and other nice details. Do you notice the dates that are noted on the houses, some were builded in 1696 till 1698.

The white building with the tower is the city hall of Brussels. People get married here and when a sports team wins an important game they can all stand on the balcony on the left. The building on the other side is the King's House, now the museum of Brussels.

Look for the man sitting on a horse. He is pointing to a statue on the other side. This statue is pointing to Saint Nicolas, the saint who brings the Belgian kids gifts on the 6th of December.

1. Question

5 points

Let your creativity speak and guess why they are pointing at each other. Film your version of the story and post it on social media. Don't forget to tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

2. Bonus Question

1 point

Brussels has a link with a special number, can you guess which one?
TIP: Count all the streets on the square.

Stop 2

MANNEKEN PIS

Meet the most popular citizen of Brussels. The statue has been here since 1619. But it is a copy. As the manneken has been stolen several times we wanted to keep him safe. Manneken Pis is also a much-discussed statue. One of the stories is that he saved all the inhabitants of Brussels by peeing out a huge fire.

Or, he peed on the wire of a bomb and saved Brussels once again.

3. Challenge

5 points

There are many more stories to tell about this small boy. Invent a new one with your group. Film it and post it on social media. Don't forget to tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

4. Bonus Point

1 point

In 2019 the Tour de France started here. Take a picture of a reference to this glorious moment and post it online.

Stop 3

JEANNEKE PIS

Did you know that we also have a peeing girl? Her name is Jeanneke Pis and you can find her at the end of an alley.

Go and find her.

Jeanneke is much more recent than our Manneken Pis.

5. Question

1 point

How much age difference is there between the two statues? Fill in your answer on the answer sheet.

Stop 4

ZINNEKE PIS

There are three peeing statues in Brussels, but we think this one is the most fun. It is Zinneke (Pis) and this mongrel is the symbol of the people of Brussels! A mongrel is a mix of different dog breeds or a street dog. And here in Brussels almost everyone comes from somewhere else.

We are the second most cosmopolitan city in the world, after Dubai, with 183 different nationalities.

You can hear all languages here, and even the dialect is a mixture of different languages, mainly Dutch and French.

The story of the statue is that this was a street dog that was drowned in the Middle Ages in the Zenne, the main river of Brussels. The dogs got the nickname of being a Zinneke and this is also a nickname of the Brussels inhabitants as we are all from different backgrounds. And we must say, it gives Brussels a typical international atmosphere.

6. Question

1 point

In this street you can find some bricks that cross the street. Can you find them? Take a picture while you are standing on them (mind the traffic off course).

Any idea what this is referring to?

Stop 5

SAINT-CATHERINE & FISH MARKET

Here we are in front of Saint-Catherine's church.

Saint Catherine lived in the 3rd century. Her legend, brought to our regions by the crusaders, tells that she died as a virgin and a martyr. She was first tied to a wheel with nails, which she managed to break with her prayers.

Despite her escape, she was beheaded and milk flowed from her body. And with this milk she saved the people from the plague. So much for the legend.

Have you heard about the "Catherinettes", they are linked to Saint Catherine?

On the 25 of November, St Catherine's Day, single women aged 25 are celebrated as "Catherinettes" in some regions of France.

This tradition dates back to the Middle Ages. In those days, girls of 25 who were not yet married would dress up in extravagant clothes and hats and go in procession before a statue of Saint Catherine to decorate her with flowers, ribbons, hats... Those who wanted to find a husband placed a crazy hat on their heads. They hung yellow and green decorations on it to stand out.

Now we will not dress up - unless you really want to. But there is another name linked to the saint: the Saint-Catherine's wheel.

7. Question 1 point

Can you do a cartwheel in front of the church? Proof it by making a video of it. The more members of the group who are in the video, the more points you can collect. Don't forget to tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

Stop 6
JARDIN HOSPICE

Have you ever heard about the beguines? Probably not... or you are from this part of Europe (Belgium, Netherlands or the north of France).

nuns they could work and earn money, keep this money for themselves as well and if they found love they could leave the beguinage to get married. You could see them a bit as the first entrepreneurial woman living in cooperatives.

The beguines were women living together around the 12th century in a sort of a convent. Contrary to

Here, in this area was the beguinage of Brussels, one of the biggest in Europe.

8. Question 1 point

The beguines also baked their own bread and brewed beer. Go inside of the building at number 7 and go look for the name of the brewery that is located here. Enjoy the location, you can stroll around in the building.

EXTRA

This building was an elderly home for a long time. Five years ago everybody had to move and it has been empty since recently. Now you can find 150 different projects working around sustainability, art & culture, community or education. If you like cookies go and visit TOGA Patisserie. It is led by a female preneur Léonie who loves chocolate and almonds. Just follow the signs.

Stop 7

MONT DES ARTS (ART MOUNTAIN)

Two statues are standing in front of each other. King Albert I is sitting on his horse and his wife Queen Elisabeth is on the other side of the road.

There is a lot to tell about this beloved queen. During the Second World War she helped escape a lot of Jews in a discrete but active way. She loved yoga, art and music and played the violin herself.

Have you heard about the Queen Elisabeth Competition? It is a music competition that is held yearly, alternating between piano, violin, voice and cello.

And Albert Einstein has been a close friend to this impressive woman, they played the violin together.

But unfortunately her husband died in an accident. He fell during rock climbing in the Ardens, a region in the south of Belgium.

9. Question

1 point

There is an unwritten rule among sculptors that informs you how the person who sits on a horse died. Can you guess how you can find out?

TIP: Climb the Mont des Arts and enjoy the view over Brussels!

Stop 8

SAINT-GERY

Legend has it that the island of Saint-Géry is the cradle of Brussels. Now we see a beautiful building on this square where a market was held till the 1970's. Go and have a look inside, and if you fancy a drink you are in a good place to do 'a terrasse'. We love to sit outside. Only when it rains hard, we go inside.

10. Question

1 point

When was this monument built?

Stop 9

SABLON

Enjoy the area around here as well, behind the church you have the Sablon where you can find a lot of chocolate and antique shops.

In the middle you see the counts of Egmont and Horne* surrounded by ten statues of men important in history, art or science. The counts of Egmont and Horne lived in the 16th century. Both noble men opposed the Spanish Inquisition and were decapitated on the Grand Place (Main Square) of Brussels.

You will also see 48 other statues around the park of professions in that era.

11. Question

1 point

Can you notice something when you look at the fencework?

12. Question

1 point

How many statues of women can be found?

Stop 10

PALACE OF JUSTICE

You are standing in front of the Palace of Justice. It was built by the architect Poelaert in 1883 and was then the biggest building of the world. Now it is still in use as a courthouse but as you can see we are renovating it. Already so long that we first need to replace the scaffoldings before we can continue the renovation.

But, we would like to tell you a bit more about Marie Popelin. She was the first woman who graduated from law school in 1888 but could never become a lawyer. In that time women were only good enough to have children, raise them and take care of the household. She did not agree at all and fought for equal rights and started the Belgian League for Women's Rights.

Ok ok, you can have a laugh with it, we do as well.

13. Question

1 point

Marie never became a lawyer. Can you guess till when we needed to wait before the first female lawyer was accepted at the bar?

TIP: Subtract a nice round number from this year.

Stop 11

PALACE OF EGMONT & THE PARK

Can you imagine that even a lot of people in Brussels have never heard of this hidden park?

We love it, it is the ideal picnic spot if you want to relax and lay down a bit while looking at the Palace of Egmont.

Also, you can admire some nice statues here. One is from Prince de Ligne who loved English Gardens. Another one is from a fairy tale. You can see a boy playing his flute, while elves are dancing around and the mice and rabbits keep him company.

14. Question

1 point

Who is this boy who never grew up? It is from a known fairy tale.

15. Question

1 point

What is the name of the fairy that is always flying around him?

Stop 12

ROYAL PARK & ROYAL PALACE

You are now in the royal park of Brussels, just in front of the Royal Palace. We enjoy this park a lot for running, walking and even for music festivals.

Ideal place to have your lunch here (if it is nice weather).

Go and look for the round fountain. It is in front of the Rue de la Loi where you can find a lot of important buildings from our Belgian Government and it's close to the EU buildings.

16. Question

1 point

Around this fountain you can find some statues of Diana and Venus. Imitate your favorite one and send us a picture. Don't forget to tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

Stop 13

ROYAL GALLERIES OF SAINT-HUBERT

It was built in 1847, in a period when Brussels was very wealthy and where they wanted to give a place to the rich to go shopping without making their feet dirty. You needed to pay to get in, but had a big range of luxury shops, cinema's, a theater and a lot of restaurants. Today you still have that offering and it is open to everybody.

17. Question

3 points

Doesn't this gallery look like the ideal place to do some catwalking? Film the group while walking around as a real model. Film it, post it on social media and tag #sheruns2022 and your team.

Stop 14

PLACE DE LA MONNAIE

here: The Dominican. Before it was an old convent - of the Dominicans. One of the nuns of this monastic order was Jeanne Deckers or better known as Soeur Sourire or the singing nun.

Today you can find one of the prettiest hotels of Brussels She made the church more attractive but her personal life was not that joyfull. In short she was an art teacher before, fell in love with a woman and fled into the convent. When she became famous with her music she left the convent but never got the success from when she was still a nun. Jeanne needed to pay a lot of taxes, but never earned a penny herself. She organized an exhibition with her artwork but again nobody showed up.

With her song Dominique she became extremely popular. More than 50 000 copies were sold and she was even number one in the Billboard Top 100 in the USA.

Both she and her girlfriend took an overdose.

18. Question

5 points

But... let's get back to some positivity. Scan the QR-code and listen to the famous song that she has written.

Write your own refrain and film how you all sing it together. Post in on social media, tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

NICE TO SEE

EXTRA 1

CITÉ DU SUREAU

The main reason why we brought you here is because we think this is such a cute little street.

It is still one of the 'remains' of the Beguinage*, which used to be one of the biggest in Europe.

Now it is still a quiet little street, near the bustling Fishmarket.

 We will tell you more about the "Beguinage" on a different spot.*

19. Question

1 point

You can find some nice street art in this alley. Do you recognise the girl on the wall?

MOLENGEEK

Here you can find the interesting company Molengeek. It is a programming school, a co-working, start-up incubator and so much more.

They teach young people who did not finish their secondary school to learn how to code in a very practical way. It was founded by Ibrahim Ouassari who did not finish school himself and is now part of the board of advisors of a big telecom company. Another founder is Julie Foulon who also founded girleek who helps women to acquire digital skills so they can find a job afterwards in this domain.

An important company who gives a lot of changes to people.

20. Question

1 point

They get the support of a huge digital company. Can you guess which one?

TIP - look at the colors.

EXTRA 3

HAL AMAL

She is only 26 years old, but has already won the world championship Jiu Jitsu for the ninth time in 2021!

Reasons enough to name a sports hall after this impressive sportive.

Exceptional as well, as normally you only get this recognition after you have died. This sports hall is brand new and is focussing on local sport clubs with an additional focus on women.

21. Question

2 points

In Jiu Jitsu you have different belts and degrees. Sort the colors (7) from the lowest grade to the highest.

22. Bonus Point

3 points

Bonus point if you can portray this. Look for the colors around you, in nature, in clothing,... and take a picture of them in the right order.

Don't forget to post your photo on social media, tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

EXTRA 4

RUE DE LA CIGOGNE

One of the cutest streets in Brussels, do you agree? The street is called the "stork street" and used to be an alley where laborers lived together. Sometimes with more than a hundred people in this street and they shared one toilet and water pump. Luckily now it is much nicer.

23. Question

3 points

In this alley you can find two birds. Can you spot them?

Take a group picture here and post it on social media with the tags #sheruns2022 and your team name

EXTRA 5

YVONNE RENDERS

Amandine Levy is a female graffiti-artist who painted this mural in 2019. That year the Tour de France, one of the most important cycling events, departed in Brussels. On this wall you can see two heroes of Belgian cycling.

You can see the name of Eddy Merckx, who has won the Tour de France five times! And you can also see the name of Yvonne on the back of the cycling girl. This is Yvonne Reynders, the first female cyclist in Belgium. She has been World Champion for seven times.

It was not easy for a woman back then in the 1960's to start cycling. Her first bike was from a dump where she found an iron frame and added the pedals herself. She was not paid when she won, the money that was earned was used to pay the men. But she persisted and is finally renowned for what she achieved.

24. Question

3 points

We think that Yvonne needs some extra cheering. Let one person of the group act like she is cycling and winning and the rest will welcome her at the finish. Make a boomerang of this happy moment. Post it on social media and tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

EXTRA 6

MADAME CHAPEAU

This punchy lady is Madame Chapeau, one of the characters of the theater play "Bossemans and Coppenolle". It is all about a quarrel between two families who both support another football team.

Bossemans is pro Union. Don't know if you have heard about them but they had a blitz career last year. From the second league they got promoted to the first league and became second in the National Competition.

Coppenolle is a big supporter of RWDM, a football club in Molenbeek. RWDM has a good girl team and supports girls to play football but also to study well or find a job.

25. Question

3 points + bonus point for the hat

Every year there is a competition to find the best imitator for Madame Chapeau. Normally this is a man who dresses up, but I am sure that you can do better. Copy the look of Madame Chapeau and take a picture. Get a bonus point if you are wearing a hat!

Post it on social media and tag #sheruns2022 and your team name.

EXTRA 7

GABRIELLE PETIT

Meet Gabrielle Petit here, who was a spy during the First World War. Before she had this heroic career she worked as a nanny, shop assistant and wanted to become a nurse at the war front.

Her plans must have suddenly changed as the British espionage service has sent her to London for a blitz training in railway spying. During six months she wrote more than fifty reports that had a big impact for the allied forces. Some of the reports were noted down on thin cigarette papers that Gabrielle hid in her clothes.

But she was trapped into an ambush, was locked up in prison but kept her mouth. Finally she was executed and became a heroine after her death.

26. Question

2 points

Want to be a spy as well? Crack the code and guess the name of another Brussels female heroine during the war.

CODE

51 - 41 - 42 - 44 - 32

31 - 11 - 15 - 51 - 13 - 13

5	V	W	X	Y	Z

EXTRA 8
ATOMIUM

Maybe a bit too far to visit the Atomium today. But from here you have a nice view of this known monument of Brussels. The atomium represents the structure of an iron crystal and counts nine globes.

27. Question

5 points

Go and look for some materials to build an Atomium yourself. When finished, post a picture on social media, and tag #sheruns2022 and your team.

EXTRA 9
MARY

Do you like chocolate? We love it here... In this beautiful gallery you have a lot of front of the shop here you can maybe see that this was a former pharmacy. And indeed, one chocolate a day keeps the doctor away... That is what we believe 😊.

brands who make 'pralines'. This is a small chocolate with different fillings.

You will also find Mary here, she was the first female chocolate maker! You can see her female touch here when you look at the different boxes.

Neuhaus is the inventor and when you are in

28. Question

1 point

And there is something else quite specific. Can you guess to whom the names of her chocolates refer?

GET BONUS POINTS!

» Find as many street signs as possible that are named after a woman. Brussels counts more or less 2230 street names, but only 130 are named after a woman.

Take a photo of every street name that you can find, you will get one bonus point per name.

» We like Street Art in Brussels! On almost every corner there is some street art to be found. But, sometimes we like to hide it a bit better. One artist - Isaac Cordal - has hidden 7 small statues in the streets of Brussels.

On the map you can find the locations where they are. Take a photo of every statue, for each one you will get one bonus point.

And to help you out, they look like this →

» Thirsty? Look for one of the Breughel fountains on your way. Breughel was one of Belgium's famous painters and each fountain has a detail of one of the paintings on top of it. You also see three parts with water. The upper part is for humans to drink, the big reservoir was for the horses and underneath you find a part for cats and dogs. Can you find the detail of the dog?

Take a picture of each fountain that you can find on your way. Bonus point for each one.

Here is a handy map to give you more info about all the drinking fountains and public toilets.

» Brussels, it evokes something different for everyone. What comes to mind when you think of Brussels?

Visualize it and take a picture of what you think is 'typically' Brussels.

» Belgium has more than 700 cartoon artists. And in Brussels we wanted to highlight them. We painted about 70 cartoon walls. So look around and check if you can find one of these.

Take a picture in front of each wall that you can find and get an extra bonus point for it

THE END! YOU DID IT!

You are now at the end of the Scavenger Hunt! Did you enjoy it?! We hope you learnt some fun facts.

Don't forget to upload all your photos and videos to either Facebook or Instagram using these key hashtags!!

#SheRuns @ISFsports

Also add your team name.

This scavenger hunt was created by Bazaar Trottoir.
We organize city walks in a fun way about women, street art, sustainability and in different areas.

You can always tag us: #bazaartrottoir @bazaartrottoir

WANT TO DISCOVER MORE? (FREE DAY)

Visit the Marolles area where you have the flea market. All the small streets around this area are really nice to walk around.

The Bellona house is a hidden gem. It is a 17th century house that was once from one of the mistresses of Louis XIV and is now a theater.

Like churches and cathedrals?

Then visit the Saint Michiels & Saint Gudula Cathedral. It has a special organ that is hanging like a swallow's nest.

Want to go shopping?

All the big brands can be found in the Rue Neuve.

Like urban art?

The Mima is an interesting museum focussing on street art and graphism. Now there is an interesting expo from The Invader.
